ABOVE THE DOORWAY AT
HAGERSTOWN HIGH SCHOOL
SIT TWO WISE OWLS WHO FOR
FIFTEEN YEARS HAVE WATCHED
THE COMING AND GOING OF YOUTH
ON AN EAGER BENT OF LEARNING.
IN THE STORY OF HIGH SCHOOL LIFE THE 1937 EPITOME IS THE
FIFTEENTH CHAPTER WIT-NESSED BY THESE TWO SOL-EMN SAGES - A CHAPTER
IN WORD AND PICTURE
TELLING OF THE AC-TIVITIES OF YOUTH

foreword

like the spirit of yesteryear, the ideals of h. h. s. live on. in the epitome of 1937, the staff has sought to recreate the multi-colored moods of their school life by substituting for the conventional theme a less formal account of daily work, study, and play.

Administration and Faculty

c. b. stout

w. j. stahr

board of education

the school board consists of three capable, dependable personalities to whom we give credit for the success and progress of our school. by putting faith and confidence into this well organized staff, we have become the richer.

they are w. j. stahr, c. b. stout, and a. bland. in behalf of the entire student body, we thank them.

in our superintendent, mr. cory, are embodied the dignity, poise, and intellectual initiative which typify a man of his position. his human interest and his guiding spirit are necessary for the welfare of hagerstown students.

f. m. cory

j. r. craw

mr. craw is the striking combination of good sound sense, a pleasing personality and never ending friendship for the members of this school. amiable, jovial, and always willing to lend a helping hand — these characterize our principal.

two in one

bright skies and gray skies are crowded into one.

there are always shadows to obliterate the sun.

sad thoughts with happy thoughts find a place within good deeds and kindnesses, yet a touch of sin.

i think the bad things are to make us realize

the blessings of the good things, the folly of our sighs!

most human and owlsh like are the teachers, trained to teach and solve the problems of our school. difficult it is for us as students to appreciate them in the fullest. yet to them we do express our appreciation for their guidance and care. we are the recipients.

the tree

the tree held up her branches to the sky and danced and flirted in the glowing sun.
she reveled in the summer just begun and kissed each little breeze that drifted by.
she was a thing of beauty and of grace.
it was a joy to see her there when passing blossoms brushed her lovely face, or summer rains dropped softly in her hair.

the autumn came and with a ruthless hand tore off her clothes and added to his gay store.
destitute and naked then she had to stand—and yet she seemed more lovely than before;
an inner grace, a hidden symmetry,
the source of all her beauty was revealed.
a soul laid bare that nature had concealed and covered with a gown of greenery.

my soul before the Lord is always bare—
i wonder if he finds some beauty there.

Athletics

if one should happen along the corridor of dear old h. h. s. on friday noon during the basketball season, he would no doubt hear a terrific noise coming from the portals of the gymnasium. upon investigation, he would see a great mob of girls and boys massed together on the gym floor and on the stage, mid and howard. pep-session is under way. under the capable leadership of these two people, the gang breaks loose and in honor of our school colors, we have—

*“yea purple! yea gold!
yea hagerstown, let's go!!!!!”*

from this we go on to boost each and every player on our team with—“yea forward, yea guard! yea center, hit 'em hard!”

then comes the new four “rahs,” four “fights” and the crowd is wild with eager anticipation for the coming game. against whom, it does not matter, for the sportsmanship always remains the same. every student is behind the team giving it the loyal support which it deserves. on and on, with break-neck speed and pep cheers continue, one after another, until it is time to go; then the enthusiasts file out in groups, singing—“oh, h. h. s., our alma mater, we're true to thee—”

2. harvey—davey will always be known for his clean sportsmanship. he has another year on the team.
3. knose—a junior whose brilliant defensive work and ability to start offensive plays make hagerstown fans proud that he is one of the team.
4. lester—a veteran of the squad since 1935, he is still doing an excellent job of showing the spectators that he is still on his toes. he has another year coming and will be a great asset to the '38 team.
5. warfel—cool, collective, a good passer, and a good shot, has what it takes to hold his man. these are the characteristics of this junior who completes the regular squad.
6. bookout—all bookout lacks is experience. he will be a fine ball player next year. he has two more years on the team.
7. harrison—one of the second string men transferred to the varsity in the latter part of the season—is only a sophomore and will be a fine ball player in years to come.
8. petty—on the tip off, petty was very valuable. he has two more years on the team.
9. taylor—this lanky forward is but a sophomore, but his ability to snag those "under the basket shots" makes him an outstanding player.
10. wells—only a freshman this year, johnny wells, has a chance to become one of h. h. s.'s outstanding players. he has three more years on the team.

junior high

due to the coaching of ted sedgwick, the junior high had an exceptionally good season, which promises stars for future high school teams. they won all their games except those two with straughn when they were defeated by one point one time and two points another time. their players were forrest, forward ; foutz, forward ; cory, center ; surber, guard ; brooks, guard ; and subs were rhodus, stewart, and knapp.

they went to mooreland to the junior high tourney where they played three games against sulphur springs, blountsville, and mooreland. winning these, they were entitled to bring home the trophy. this is the third year in succession that they have brought the trophy to hagerstown.

the junior high team won from the following teams :

- losantville—one game
- centerville—two games
- cambridge—two games
- economy—two games
- milton—one game
- mooreland—two games

coach — castle

we would not be sentimental about a physical thing which has in its time served honorably and well. we would not wish for the past few years to repeat themselves as far as our city gym is concerned. let us praise the service it has rendered in the past; let us be glad for having had a place for our games. but now let us look to the near future for the opportunity of this coming year. a new gym with adequate capacity for not only our athletic program, but for any worth while community activity is ours. a new building controlled wisely and maintained systematically is in the making. how will it feel to be in a clean airy place for an hour or so of vitalizing fun? how much safer and more secure will that feeling be? no more hours of physical exposure, practicing in the barn! no more racing a couple of squares in bitter cold to prepare for and to play that prearranged game! no more embarrassment in inviting other schools here to play in an open, unheated, rain-soaked building!

grand it will be for the fans. there will be no back breaking seats, no soiled clothes, and no disease because of exposure in the new gym.

yes, we should be happy and proud of the accomplishments of a few in securing the government grants and in arranging a thorough program, that this new gym has been made possible.

we, the class of 1937, realizing we are about to leave this vale of joys and sorrows, and being of a philanthropic mind toward fellow travelers and fellow sufferers, do ordain and publish this document of good will and good wishes:

to mr. heniser—someone else to laugh at his jokes to miss ackerman—our appreciation for her patience and tolerance in bookkeeping classes during the past year to miss hormel—the remaining three chapters of “how to be popular in ten easy lessons” so hall duty will permanently be a pleasure to mr. shively—a memorandum pad so he won’t forget the absence list to miss dutro—a record breaking g. r. club to mr. cory—our best wishes for years of success in the oncoming classes of hagerstown schools to helen smith—our undying love and appreciation for putting up with us in the office all year to mr. craw—our sincere thanks for his friendship and supervision of activities of the class of ’37

we, as individuals do hereby bequeath the following:

josinah allen—her eagerness to debate to mary lou baker bundy cummins—betty lou to an unsuspecting junior, with restrictions mavier mcconnaughey—her place on the honor roll to betty monroe mary talbert—her mania for chewing gum in classes and assembly to maxine fisher provided she won’t swallow it when she sees a teacher virgil davenport—his literary ability and wide vocabulary to next year’s speech class so miss hormel can have as much fun as the rest marjorie haisley—her numerous junior boy friends to anyone who wants them with the proposition that she can keep bill fred wood—his position in the national guards to joe max knose with the understanding that he will have to use some physical energy leslie burgess—his height to lawrence petty juanita chapman—her seat in ralph oler’s v-8 to anyone who can capture cupid from him blanche paddock—her black eye to bette teetor provided she will help the g. r. cabinet move out the chairs during the coming year mary catherine dennis—her “ray” of sunshine to helen burgess with the understanding that she can have him on sunday nights class will

bette davis—her perfect attendance to norma beeson ruth harcourt—her dimples and vamping eyes to irene sherry to use on dalton—not newcastle laurence handy—his seat in economics class just in front of castle to the one who has the good fortune of sitting there next year hubert hinshaw—his loud ties to howard bogue to go with howard's pet expression, "ain't that hot!" charles howell—his morning and afternoon naps to harry ashman eleanor romine—her quiet demure manners to thelma taylor, hoping they will be used ruby steward—her bottle of nerve medicine to miss morris to add to her already numerous preparations horace shields—his excuses for not having his assignments to jim spitler rita smith refuses to will anything since her giggle is her only asset and she can't bear to part with it mid strickler—her gorgeous raven curly locks to lola brown charles hall—his ability to get passes from any teacher to the oncoming senior class ernest miller—his ceaseless line of interrogations to anyone who knows all the answers
ethel mae crull—her gift of never-ending chatter to june bradshaw june murray—her position as publicity chairman of the g. r.'s to tula smith
mildred dennis—her elevated left eyebrow to leah fern gray thelma bland—her position as advertising manager on the epitome staff to any junior who can go to richmond every day next year
charles clements—his ability to draw airplanes and women to mr. heniser so he will have a pastime while teaching a health class dorothy dale—her ability to wear red to marileen shultz maurice daugherty—his position as center on the basketball team to red weaver
john drischel—his position as permanent h. h. s. stage manager to cecil hinshaw
charles knapp—his eighth grade blonde to the most deserving underclassman bill murray—a horse to bud pressel so bud can get to school on time
paul reed—his ability to "get by" to kooch fouts and charles fowler
david wisehart—his position as sheik of h. h. s. to bob brower fern weimer—her flirtatious ways to june sulteen bill symons—his daily afternoon "passes out to work" to the junior who can get by with it what would h. h. s. be if—the advertising staff walked out heniser forgot to take in his road signs dubrovo forgot to talk in the halls the owls on the front of the building lost their wisdom the juniors gave a dance for reception invitations were not sent out for commencement the baccalaureate speaker didn't show up the senior day program would be put on the stage permanently noise reigned in our halls craw would read part of his note collection in the assembly ackerman lost her temper cain wasn't our coach

seniors didn't loaf
helen forgot the absence list report cards came back on time we didn't have any detention the exponent staff sent gossip to the paper the future farmers failed to farm the art class went in for character painting the library ceased to be a study hall the cafeteria quit serving lunches teachers quit giving passes cory stopped giving fatherly advice the epitome ceased being a senior project castle couldn't explain stocks, bonds, and their mysteries brewer went in for swing stage hands went on a strike miss morris hadn't taken latin things you should know

jokes

bette teetor—i certainly am getting absent minded. why, the other night i sat up until after twelve o'clock trying to remember something i knew i wanted to do.

emily—and did you finally remember it?

bette—yes, i recalled that i wanted to go to bed early.

rita smith wonders what causes “night caps” on waves.

m. mcconnaughey—oh, heniser is all right in his place.

m. talbert—yeah, but it hasn't been dug yet.

miss castle—what are the three economic principles?

ruby s.—life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

horn repairman—shall i install a loud or soft horn?

bogue (starting to cambridge city)—just one with a dirty sneer.

duto—if you subtract 14 from 116, what's the difference?

freshman—yeah, i think it's a lot of foolishness, too.

1940

father—where's willie?

mother—you'll have to speak to that boy. he's been flying back and forth across the atlantic all afternoon!

mr. grouch—woman is nothing but a rag, a bone and a hank of hair.

mrs. grouch—man is nothing but a brag, a groan, and a tank of air.

toll-bridge man—fifty cents.

weary traveler in ancient car—sold. i'll walk the rest of the way.

cory—my wife is always pestering me for money. does yours do that?

craw—no, but the people she buys things from do.

heniser—do you think you could learn to love more than one girl?

brower—i don't know, but if the tuition is not too high, i'll sign up for the first few lessons, anyhow.

prophecy

the eventful day had come! people lined the streets of hagerstown to see the class of '37 as they marched by. the courthouse square was filled with spectators. people were looking from their hotel windows. there was the sound of the drum; the parade was on!

in the lead came horace shields who is now giving leopold stokowski, jr. lessons on "how to lead a swing band."

paul reed is a professor at purdue university. however he gets out and calls hogs and you should see those hogs come.

thelma bland and mildred strickler still visit newcastle. we wonder what the attraction is out there but have pretty good ideas. we don't know how long they will be old maids.

next were fern weimer and mavier meconnaughey. they have just laid the corner stone for their new "old maids' home" for bachelors only. watch your step, girls.

fred wood is trying to invent a button to push on so the bathtub will come out of the wall full of water. we believe the "touch bathing system" will become universal.

ruth harcourt was next. ruth is writing a book on "how to avoid accidents." practice what you preach, ruth.

then came june murray and bill symons. june is giving piano and ball room dancing lessons. it is rumored that you know as much when you start as you do when you quit. well, good luck, june. bill is at the head, or rather president of a large automobile industry. We don't know what gave him the idea unless it was his experience with his model t.

dorothy dale followed dressed in a nurse's uniform. dorothy had high ideals for being a nurse and she is now superintendent of the dog and cat hospital in hagerstown.

riding in a beautiful float and drawn by white horses came our other movie actor, leslie burgess. his next picture is "blonde haired girls." we know leslie had plenty of experience with that certain blond in hagerstown.

The parade of life reveals other pictures.

mary talbert has realized her ambition of singing for a big-time dance orchestra. she and ted weems have a lot in common.

juanita chapman, during the last flood was the head nurse sent by the red cross. she stuck to the job and rescued lots of people.

bette davis is married to some guy, we haven't heard who. this came about as a result of that childhood pen-pal correspondence.

john drischel, "our faithful stage hand" chooses prize-fighting as his career. he recently won the world's heavy weight championship from jimie braddock, jr. hubert hinshaw runs his own airport and gives free rides to all members of the class of '37.

maurice daugherty is teaching indiana university students the technique of basketball. since he's been coaching, they have been undefeated.

josinah allen has become nationally known as a costume designer. She now operates the leading fashion shop in paris.

prophecy

blanche paddock attended newcastle business college after graduation and is at present private secretary to j. edgar hoover. she has more fun missing bullets.

eleanor romine is touring europe since her recent graduation from the conservatory. we always knew she could play like whiz.

bill murray, after attending college, comes back home and becomes the leading banker of hagerstown.

bundy cummins last year won the 500-mile speedway race at indianapolis, he will attempt the same this year and we hope his attempt proves fruitful.

marjorie haisley, our beautiful blonde, drives a packard 12 and is independent of everyone. many romances have come to her, but she refuses all. she is holding down the title of miss america.

rita smith still believes that life is just a bowl of cherries, but she's teaching school now in dalton. and there are seeds in the cherries, she says.

laurence handy, the little man with the big voice, has succeeded joe parsons as the baritone of the air. he now is master of ceremonies on his own program over a chain network.

ernest miller makes hay while the sun shines. he runs his own farm and has proved to be doggone good at it too.

virgil davenport, one of the "california or bust" gang is now playing villain roles in hollywood's leading plays.

charles hall went camping in the adirondacks and we haven't heard from him since. we suppose he is still there.

ruby steward started out on a big career as a nurse, but some tall, dark, handsome mystery confronted her and she now budgets according to the family income.

charles howell runs across the field occasionally and chats with ernest. their farms are joined by a babbling brook.

david wisehart, millville's bashful boy, found a way to the big town. the elite of the city come to his exclusive haberdashery, and his success is astounding.

ethel mae crull succeeded eddie duchin shortly after he retired from the stage and radio. she really gives it the old duchin special.

charles elements sent a horse to the kentucky derby and won by a nose. the horse won, we mean. "charlie boy" surely can run.

mid dennis stayed single until 1943—in fact we almost thought she wasn't going to get a man. but she finally landed him and they are living happily. mary catherine dennis had a terrible time getting started but now jerks sodas and cokes in her modern cafe on main street in dalton.

charles knapp became stranded in mt. rainier and began painting for a pastime. now he is the famous scenario artist of the rockies.

The parade continues just as life passes by. happy are we that the class of '37 stands out in history. As the shades of nite rise to the blue heaven, so are this day's events closed to mortal observation.

'twas the night of the tourney and all through the town
there was much animation
as to who would go down.
people round radios
with eager delight
were listening to hear
of the team's gallant fight.
the tigers—not far behind at the half were rousing the bulldogs from a long winter's nap.
then over the radio there came such a clatter
i juggled the dial to see what was the matter and then in an instant
it came like a flash—
centerville had cooked hagerstown's hash.
